

HANDS IN THE Community

OUR NEW Visual Identity

HNC FEATURE:

So often, HNC praises the work of our volunteers - those who are meeting the needs of the families and individuals who contact the ministry for assistance. Yet, we cannot forget to recognize the incredible generosity of our business partners in the community. Our heartfelt thanks goes out to Keller Williams. When Keller William's heard about Gina and her story, they acted immediately in coming to the rescue of a Visalia grandmother...

Feature Story:

Gina lives with her disabled grandson and has selflessly dedicated her life to caring for him day in and day out. Gina contacted HNC in January asking for our help to find a way to build a ramp to her home in order to ensure both she and her grandson could safely enter and exit. For months, Gina had to rely on neighbors, friends and volunteers to carry her grandson in and out of their home. When HNC received her call, our office volunteers immediately sprang into action by contacting several groups, agencies and organizations to try and connect Gina with a resource. Unfortunately, months rolled by as Gina and HNC continued to pray that God's hand would guide this project. Our prayers were answered when Keller William's saw a church bulletin insert from HNC. The company decided to adopt this project and see it through to completion - from the initial design and construction to the full installation of the ramp. Gina and her grandson are now able to safely come and go because of the generous hearts at Keller Williams!
