Visalia, CA, August 27, 2010 -- Hands in the Community, a Central Valley non-profit organization, announced it will host “Making Memories with Hands in the Community” on Saturday, October 2, 2010. The workshop will take place from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm at First Christian Reformed Visalia located at 1030 South Linwood Street, Visalia, CA 93277.

All are cordially invited to attend. The registration fee is $25 per person, and is tax deductible. Checks and credit cards will be accepted for payment. Checks can be made to Hands in the Community and credit card transactions can be made at www.hnconline.org through PayPal. Participants should bring their own pictures and scrapbook to work on during the event. Participants will enjoy workshop classes, food, prizes and raffle drawings throughout the day. Class sessions will include topics that cover: digital scrapbooking, getting organized, photography tips and beginning scrapbooking. Supplies will be available for purchase, but participants are welcome to bring their own to the event. Childcare will be available from 9:00 am to 12:00 noon at a cost of $3.00 per hour, per child and must be prepaid and added to the registration fee.

Hands in the Community will receive 100% of the registration fee, raffle ticket sales and sales profits from the event. RSVP by September 27, 2010 to hncvisalia@yahoo.com or Lester Moon: (559) 625-3822.

Hands in the Community is a faith based non-profit organization established to provide crisis and short-term referral services and resources between those who need them and those who can provide them.
